September 12-13, 2014

Venue: Department of Forensic Medicine & Toxicology
School of Medical Sciences & Research
Sharda University, Greater Noida, U.P., (NCR, Delhi)

Dear friends,

It gives us immense pleasure and privilege to cordially invite you to the 13th National Conference of Indian Congress of Forensic Medicine & Toxicology and National CME on 11th September 2014 organized by Department Of Forensic Medicine and Toxicology, SMS & R, Sharda University, Greater Noida, U.P. on “Heinous Crimes & Human Rights Violation against Women and Children: Need for a Proactive Forensic Approach” from 12 – 13 September 2014. The escalating increase in heinous crimes against women and children appeals from all Medical professionals, Forensic experts, Judiciary, Police, Media & NGO's to upgrade the technology, knowledge and attitude in dealing with such crimes. We invite scholarly papers that seek to advance knowledge and understanding of the role of Forensic medicine. With great enthusiasm the organising committee invites you to participate in this academic feast.

I extend my warm invitation to the eminent delegates to make this event a grand success.

Kindly download Registration Form from attached file and circulate among all faculty members.
